

MLK 101 Series: Black Women's Activism in the Civil Rights Movement by Dr. Tiffany Gill, PhD.

- Date: Thursday, March 9, 2023
- Time: 5:00-6:00 pm EST
- Overview: MLK 101 is a series of special events created in partnership with Huron-Clinton Metroparks, the Howell Carnegie District Library, and the Livingston Diversity Council.
- Tiffany M. Gill, Assistant Professor of History at Rutgers University, will be giving a virtual presentation on African American Women in the Civil Rights Movement followed by a 30-minute Q&A session.
- Cost: Free!
- Location: Zoom Webinar
- <https://metroparks.zoom.us/j/87258689885>

